

2nd online (10th) Integrated Land Use Conference 2022

The road to net-zero

Wednesday 23rd March 2022 – Film Night

18.00-18.10: Introduction by UHI and Ted Simpson

18.10-19.10: Scotland: Our climate journey

19.10-19.50: Q&A with expert panel (Pete Moore, NatureScot Q&A facilitator):

- Ted Simpson, Filmmaker, Scout Studio
- Andrew Barbour – Mains of Fincastle, Pitlochry
- Colin McClean – Land Use Manager, Cairngorms National Park Authority
- Professor Roxane Andersen, ERI UHI (Peatlands expert)

Featured film:
<https://vimeo.com/637493736>

Thursday 24th March 2022 – Conference Day

09.30-09.35: Steering group Rep and Darlene Russell, UHI Knowledge Exchange (Facilitator for the event)

Keynote

09.35 - 09.55

- Kat Murphy, Dundreggan Rewilding Centre Education Manager, and Stephanie Kiel, AffricHighlands Team Leader on the Rewilding Centre and Affric Highlands initiatives

09.55 - 10.15

- Bruce McConachie, Head of industry development, Quality Meat Scotland – Sustainable meat production

10.15-10.35

- Dr Steven Andrews - Flow Country World Heritage status and net zero

10.35 - 10.50: Refreshments provided dependent on one's own inclination and supplies

10.50 - 11.30

- Lesley McKenna – Community Managed Affordable Housing - Learnings from the Sawmill Project

11.30 - 11.50

- Chris White, Associate Director of Environmental Economics at AECOM and Trustee of The Lifescape Project – The Natural Capital Laboratory – a rewilding experiment at Birchfield, Highlands

11.50 - 12.20

- Ben Hart – Bunloit Estate - Presenting findings from the first Natural Capital Baseline of the Bunloit Estate

12.20 - 12.40

- Andrew Barbour, Mains of Fincastle, Pitlochry - Mains of Fincastle past net zero

12.40-13.25: Q&A Session with all presenters

13.30: Conference close and Youth Land Use Film festival 2023 announcement